When England Golf can intervene with a disciplinary matter

Is the issue relating to doping in sport, or safeguarding children or vulnerable adults?

- Yes
  - Contact Compliance@EnglandGolf.org for anti-doping matters.
  - Contact Safeguarding@EnglandGolf.org for safeguarding matters.

- No
  - Did the issue arise at Club level:
    - Yes
      - Between Club & member?
      - Between members?
      - At the golf Club?
      - At or during a Club event, competition, or tournament?
        - Yes
          - Raise the issue directly with the Club and follow the Club’s Disciplinary Rules, Regulations, and Procedures.
        - No
          - Did the issue arise at County level:
            - Yes
              - Between two or more clubs?
              - At or during a County level event, competition, or tournament?
                - Yes
                  - Raise the issue directly with the County body, and follow the County body’s Disciplinary Rules, Regulations, and Procedures.
                - No
                  - Did the issue arise at National level:
                    - Yes
                      - As part of an England Golf event, competition, tournament, or squad?
                      - Between two or more County bodies?
                        - Yes
                          - Raise the issue with the Governance team at England Golf, and follow the England Golf Disciplinary Regulations.
                        - No
                          - Neither the Club, the County body, nor England Golf has jurisdiction to deal with the issue.
                    - No
                      - Consult the England Golf Appeal Guidance Flowchart if you are not satisfied:
                        - With the outcome of the disciplinary action; or
                        - That the correct procedures have been followed.

- No
  - Did the issue arise at County level:
    - Yes
      - Between two or more clubs?
      - At or during a County level event, competition, or tournament?
        - Yes
          - Raise the issue directly with the County body, and follow the County body’s Disciplinary Rules, Regulations, and Procedures.
        - No
          - Did the issue arise at National level:
            - Yes
              - As part of an England Golf event, competition, tournament, or squad?
              - Between two or more County bodies?
                - Yes
                  - Raise the issue with the Governance team at England Golf, and follow the England Golf Disciplinary Regulations.
                - No
                  - Neither the Club, the County body, nor England Golf has jurisdiction to deal with the issue.
            - No
              - Consult the England Golf Appeal Guidance Flowchart if you are not satisfied:
                - With the outcome of the disciplinary action; or
                - That the correct procedures have been followed.